MERRY MONARCH'S GOOD RACE.

The Ideal Park track has dried out a good deal. Yesterday's racing was by far the best of the week. It was a pleasant afternoon, too, and about 2,500 people went out. It was a good day for the ring but one favorite winning, while two long shots came to its rescue.

The win of Theresa H. under a maiden jockey and at 40 to 1 was the afternoon's surprise, yet some form players had small bets all three ways on the filly. The boy rode her well and although he was a trifle nervous on the end managed to hold her head up and not fall off. Omah Wood was favorite for the race and beat the flag but died away in the stretch under her 115 pounds.

The six furlongs handicap was the racing feature. It was won in first-class style by Merry Monarch, who was at the false price of 18 to 5. Ajax was made favorite, but he could not run fast enough to keep warm. H. Williams rode the winner and handled him well, allowing May Galop and Millie M to race themselves to pieces before he made a move.

Judge Denny was wildly plunged on to win the fifth race, but Jockey Jones broke both of his stirrup leathers and finished a distant third behind Pinkey Potter and Umbrella. The result was strictly form.

T. W. Coulter's Dantes won his first race for some time and was bid up $305 over his price and bought in by his owner.

The last train from Ideal Park last night ran into a freight train near Western avenue and was badly wrecked. The race train's engineer was killed and its fireman badly hurt. Some of the passengers were badly bruised and shaken up but none seriously injured.

Col. M. Lewis Clarke of Louisville, well and favorably known to the racing public as presiding judge at Garfield Park and Harlem, will assume control of the Ideal Park stand Saturday. Mr. John Kelsey will be his associate until after the Oakley meeting when Mr. John Price will succeed him. Mr. Nathanson goes to the more welcome post of secretary. Mr. Creveling is to act as the track's general agent among the horsemen.
